APPLICATION FORM SCOTTISH GOVERNMENT SCIENCE CAMPAIGN 2009/10

In applying for this money, consider how your proposed activity will get positive messages about science to the key S1-S4 audience, focus on showing the relevance of early secondary science. If possible, can you demonstrate through the activity why science is relevant to the every day world even if a student doesn't want to study it beyond school. Showing the inherently creative and fun nature of science should also be an element of the activity. Consider especially topical science ideas that you usually don't have the funding for, e.g. aspects of genetics, forensic science etc.
